Alternative Ordering Methods

- E-mail - For customers without internet access or when the website is unavailable, orders may be e-mailed to the vendor.
- Facsimile - Another option for customers without internet access.

Note: These methods will also be used for that period of time required for vendors to finalize the on-line shopping method of ordering.

DTS-W Transition Requirements

- Disconnect Orders - As customers transition to the new contract, TSCOs are responsible for submitting disconnect orders for services under the old contract
 - Use the “Cellular Airtime Request” form and procedures that is currently used under the old contract
 - Annotate in the comments section that service is transitioning to new contract
 - Always include the requested effective date
